

I am opposed to the above referenced FCC petition that is being filed by The Consumer Bankers Association (CBA) in regard to the Indiana Telephone Privacy Law.

I oppose the changing of the law from its current state. I appreciate not having telemarketers call me. If I need a service I can call them, I do not want nor need calls to me soliciting sales of any sort. Telemarketing of any kind is an infringement on my personal/family time.